

#1 | TALENT INVENTORY

A tool to reveal the natural abilities God built into you.

Many people underestimate or even ignore the fact that they have natural talents. But the truth is, God has uniquely gifted every person with specific strengths—abilities He wired into you from the very beginning. This section will guide you in identifying and reflecting on those God-given talents that you’ve likely grown and refined over the years.

Talents are your natural abilities—skills that come easily and feel intuitive. They might show up in areas like sports, academics, creativity, leadership, problem-solving, or working with your hands. These strengths likely gave you an edge in certain situations growing up, and that’s no accident. They’re part of God’s intentional design for your life.

Wired Talent Assessment Instructions

1. Turn to the next page and read each statement in the Wired Talent Assessment.
2. For each talent or skill, circle the number that best reflects how often it describes you, using the following scale:
 - 3 = ALWAYS – This describes me all the time
 - 2 = MOSTLY – This describes me most of the time
 - 1 = SOMETIMES – This describes me some of the time
 - 0 = NEVER – This does not describe me at all
3. After you’ve answered all the statements, turn to the scoring grid on pages 96-97. Add up the numbers in each column to find your total score for each letter category.

For Best Results

1. There are no right or wrong answers—just be honest.
2. This isn't about bragging; it's about discovering your God-given strengths.
3. Answer based on your real-life experience, not who you wish you were or hope to become.
